Fashion's answer to summer sidewalks: a little less shoe. Some have open heels or sides or both, others are mere strips of leather. Stockings blend coolly with the clear, bright shoe colors. The newest shades are pale, pale neutrals; others have a faint trace of yellow or green. The correct hosiery for open shoes is the seamless kind, with sandal feet or with just the toe reinforced. For thong sandals, remember: well-tanned, beautifully-groomed legs and feet are an absolute must. All hosiery is by Hanes.
